Pastor's Peace

One month! That's all that's left of Lent and then Easter will spring upon us. In two weeks we'll set our clocks to Daylight Savings time as we look longingly for the blooming of the dogwoods and azaleas. Yet, there's still time to prepare. You'll see all sorts of opportunities in here to plug into mission and ministry and oh how I hope you'll choose to do so. It may be as simple as helping to fill a foster child's Easter basket, or serving a homeless neighbor a bowl of soup or more complex like building a ramp or mentoring a child. There is more than ENOUGH to do in the month ahead. However, it's my hope that you'll take the time to not only do something great for God but also take the time to be still before God.

In Lent's last month we have the opportunity to reflect, repent, renew, restore and recharge. Take time to reflect on the events leading up to the cross and the resurrection. Take time to reflect on the headlines of the news reports. Take time to reflect upon your own life. As you do so, have the courage to repent where God leads. Don't be afraid to turn around on issues, struggles and behaviors. Put it all on the table and let God lead. Renew your passion for God and those around you and let God renew your soul. Restore broken relationships, dreams and hopes and allow God to restore your broken heart, peace and passion. Be recharged in this month as you take time to ready yourself for the greatest celebration of the year – Easter! Yes, this month is ENOUGH time to be readied for God's more than ENOUGH!

But how do I do that? Ah, now that's what this season is all about. Here are a few practices that you may want to try: Journaling – take time daily to write a simple prayer letter to God. Then sit and listen and write some more. Meditation – find a short verse, word or phrase and reflect on it for 5-10 minutes several days in a row. You'll be amazed how differently you hear the words over time. Scripture Memory – take that verse you've meditated on and put it to memory so that you have it ready whenever you need it, wherever you are. Fasting – purposefully (healthily) skip a meal or habit with a focus on cleansing your body and soul, allowing the pains of physical hunger to push you deeper into your spiritual dependence on God. Blessing – take on a practice of blessing someone else by writing a note, anonymously paying a tab, painting a rock, thanking a mentor or encouraging a child. Walking with God – get out and enjoy the weather and creation while praying to God. Walk through your neighborhood and ask God to open your eyes to the needs you can meet. Drive through the community and pray for your neighbors, businesses, schools. Listen to the sounds of the budding season and listen for the voice of God. Yes, there is more than ENOUGH to be and do this season. It's a joy to experience it with you.

Grace & Peace,
Pastor Scot

As our lesson in the Man Alive series kicked off it asked "What is our purpose in life?" While there were many different answers discussed including to serve God and family and to help and love others, the main reason is to be Disciples for Christ. How each of us discerns this is often very different. It can be by studying, learning and then applying, helping others or by simply passing the word to others. As we reflect on what this means to us we can simply ask ourselves what is it that others see in us, a Disciple of Christ or something different.

Big thanks to Mike Casey's cook team for a hearty breakfast. There were 14 in attendance as we discussed some upcoming opportunities for our men. The Baptist Men agreed to help rip out the remaining carpet in preparation for new flooring for the Sunday school halls and some of the rooms, and this project was completed. We now need volunteers on Saturday morning, March 4th to put the furniture back in place after the floors are installed. We are waiting for building materials to be delivered to put up Hurley Young's ramp. If you know of any needs in the community please let one of the men know where we can help.

The next Baptist Men's breakfast will be on March 18th at 8:30am please come and enjoy good food and fellowship.
